"And since dissertations can be written about everything under the sun, the number of topics is infinite. Sheets of paper covered up with words pile up in archives sadder than cemeteries, because no one ever visits them, not even on All Souls' Day. Culture is perishing in overproduction, in an avalanche of words, in the madness of quantity. That's why one banned book in your former country means infinitely more than the billions of words spewed out by our universities."

Milan Kundera, The Unbearable Lightness of Being (Part Three: Words Misunderstood — Sabina's Country)
